Washington Pieces.

The following Medals and Medallions are all in Silver, and in fine condition, unless otherwise described. The scale of sizes adopted, is that of the Philadelphia Numismatic Society.

			Size
2.25	663	George Washington, Smith and Hartman's die, rev. "Tomb of Washington, Mount Vernon, Virginia."	41
5.00	664	George Washington, Pacquet's die of the mint medal	38
7.00	665	—— dies struck by Bolen, rev. "I hope that liberal allowances will be made for the Political opinions of each other; without them I do not see how the reins of Government are to be managed, or how the Union of the States can be much longer preserved." (from Washington's letter to Hamilton)	38
3.50	666	George Washington, Morin's die, rev. the Crystal Palace of New York	33
3.00	667	George Washington, Lovett's die, rev. Union Square Monument	32

Washington Pieces in Gold, Silver and Copper.

Pieces.

2000	713	1786	The New York Washington cent, obv. "Non vi virtute vici," head of Washington, rev. "Neo Eboracensis." This piece is exceedingly scarce, and the condition seldom found much better	1
1000	714	1791	Large Eagle Cent, in remarkably fine condition, scarce	1
1776	715	1791	Small Eagle Cent, much rarer than preceding, and in very fine condition	1
1790	716	1791	A very rare Type of the Liverpool Half-penny, generally dated 1793 and under the ship, this has the date under the bust of Washington, 1791, the condition is only fair	1
1000	717	1791	Small Eagle Cent, struck in brass, and believed to be the only one known, in very fair condition and very rare	1
10000	718	1792	The rarest Type of the Washington Half Dollar, called by some the Washington Cent, in Silver, the obv. "Washington President," rev. eagle with expanded wings and thirteen stars directly over its head. I do not know of another of this type excepting in copper, the condition is fine	1
2000	719	1792	The same as above, in Copper, in fair condition, bought by the owner at a very high price, and is exceedingly scarce	1
1500	720	1792	The Washington Cent, obv. G. Washington President, I, head, rev. eagle differing from the preceding, with 15 stars, United States of America, very fine condition, and very rare	1
1900	721	1792	Obv. Washington, President, head, rev. General of the American Armies, 1775, resigned, 1783, President of the United States, 1789, in unusually fine state of preservation, and very rare in such condition	1

Pieces.

- 722 1792 This piece is known as the Roman Bust Washington, and is by far the rarest of any of the Washington cents, and realized more than any other American coin known, having been purchased by the owner for $480, obv. "Washington, President," the head of Washington being totally different from any other known by American Collectors, rev. the word cent directly over the eagle which is different from any other on the Washington pieces, with expanded wings, only six stars, the condition is splendid and will be a great acquisition to an American collection I believe not more than four have ever as yet been discovered, size 21

27500

Herman

- 723 1794 "Washington, President." Head. rev. An Eagle, similar to the early American Dollars, in a wreath—United States of America—in silver and in very fine condition—the die cracked, size 26

5100

Appleton

- 724 1794 Another precisely similar, in copper, size 26

4600

Herman

The pieces described above were purchased by myself some five years since, under an assurance from the seller that he believed them to be original, and I have never been able to meet with any person who had ever seen them before. I regret not being able to furnish any positive information of when, or by whom, they were struck.—EDWARD COGAN.

The pieces are very rare, and may not unfairly be considered unique and of considerable interest.
